WHY YOU SHOULD ATTEND

This two-day programme, Building Organisational Culture & Transformation, is designed for middle and senior managers, transformation leads, and high-potential leaders who want to turn culture into a strategic advantage. Participants will explore the fundamentals of organisational culture, diagnose current cultural realities, and understand how culture directly impacts strategy execution, performance, and employee behaviour.

Through a mix of practical tools, case studies, diagnostics, and interactive discussions, the workshop guides leaders from culture awareness to ownership and execution. By the end of the programme, participants will be equipped to design a fit-for-purpose culture, identify change levers, lead through uncertainty, and create actionable culture transformation plans with governance and metrics to sustain long-term success.
