

Probation, Performance & Discpline Management

21 & 22 December 2026
9.00am - 5.00pm | GMT +8

Concorde Hotel, KL
Zoom Platform

WORKSHOP OVERVIEW

This intensive two-day interactive programme equips business leaders, managers and HR professionals with practical strategies to manage probation, address underperformance, handle workplace misconduct and make informed employee management decisions.

Drawing on internationally recognised HR principles and practical workplace scenarios, the programme explores structured performance management, fair and consistent disciplinary practices, evidence-based investigations and responsible termination management. Participants will develop practical frameworks to reduce organizational risks, promote procedural fairness, strengthen managerial accountability and foster a productive and professional workplace, while recognising the need to comply with applicable local employment laws and regulations.
